

SURVEY OF ANNUITIES UNDER NPS

The National Pension System (NPS) is one of the preferred retirement options in India, thanks to its low-cost structure, transparency, hassle free operation, pension fund and investment pattern options and tax advantages. PFRDA, the regulator of NPS, is strongly committed to promote old age income security in the country. When you retire, you want a worry-free way of getting a regular income from investing the corpus you have accumulated over your working lifetime. In the absence of social security, you need a financial instrument that will give you the income you seek for the rest of your life. Annuities do precisely that and give you pension for life. By way of this survey, we will be gaining your thoughts about the Annuities under NPS.
